

Governing Body Structure and Terms of Reference

2016 to 2017

Lincoln Christ's Hospital School

1. THE ROLE OF THE ACADEMY TRUST, GOVERNING BODY AND ITS COMMITTEES

The principles of governance in academies are not dissimilar to those in maintained schools. The Academy Trust is a charitable company limited by guarantee and the governance arrangements are set out in its governing documentation (the Articles of Association).

LCHS believes that the governing body plays a key role in the success of the school and as such individual governors should not be deterred from playing their full part.

In extenuating circumstances the Chair of Governors and the Headteacher will consider whether additional support might be available to allow substantive or prospective Governors to fulfil their obligations to the Governing body.

The Governing Body, on behalf of the Academy Trust, is responsible for the conduct of the school and for promoting high standards. It aims to ensure that students are attending a highly successful school which provides them with an outstanding education, supports their overall well-being and provides them with a successful transition to the next stage in their lives.

The Governing Body:

Sets the strategic direction of the school by:

- Setting the vision, values, aims and objectives for the school
- Agreeing the policy framework for achieving those aims and objectives

Challenges and supports the school by monitoring, reviewing and evaluating:

- The effectiveness of the school in relation to external benchmarks
- The implementation and effectiveness of the policy framework
- Progress towards annual priorities as detailed in the strategic plan

Ensures accountability by:

- Ratifying the annual evaluation of school effectiveness
- Holding the Headteacher to account for the performance of the school
- Responding to OFSTED and other commissioned reports, where necessary
- Ensuring members of staff, parents and students are involved, consulted and informed as appropriate
- Making available information to the community

Appoints and performance manages the Headteacher who, with the LG and staff, will deliver the vision (through the day to day leadership and management of the school, implementation of the agreed policy framework and school improvement strategy, and delivery of the curriculum) and report appropriately to the Governing Body.

For the Governing Body to carry out its role effectively, Governing Body members must be:

- Prepared and equipped to take their responsibilities seriously;
- Acknowledged as an accountable body by the lead professionals;
- Willing and able to monitor and review their own performance.

The Role of a Governing Body member

In law the Governing Body is a corporate body, which means:

- No Governing Body member can act on her/his own without proper authority from the full Governing Body;
- All Governing Body members carry equal responsibility for decisions made, and
- Although appointed from different backgrounds and with different skills, the overriding concern of all Governing Body members has to be the welfare of the school as a whole.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR GOVERNORS

This code sets out the expectations on and commitment required from school governors and trustees in order for the governing body to properly carry out its work within the school and the community.

A Governor should:

- Each involve ourselves actively in the work of the governing body, and accept our fair share of responsibilities, including service on committees or working groups.
- Make full efforts to attend all meetings and where we cannot attend, explain in advance why we are unable to do so.
- Consider seriously our individual and collective needs for training and development, and will undertake relevant training where possible.
- Seek to develop effective working relationships with the head teacher, staff and parents, the local authority and other relevant agencies and the community.
- Observe complete confidentiality when matters are deemed confidential or where they concern specific members of staff or pupils, both inside or outside school.
- Record any pecuniary or other business interest (including those related to people we are connected with) that we have in connection with the governing body's business in the Register of Business Interests, and if any such conflicted matter arises in a meeting we will offer to leave the meeting for the appropriate length of time. We accept that the Register of Business Interests will be published on the school's website.
- Express views openly, courteously and respectfully in all our communications with other governors.
- Accept that we have no legal authority to act individually, except when the board has given us delegated authority to do so, and therefore we will only speak on behalf of the governing body when we have been specifically authorised to do so.

- Have a duty to act fairly and without prejudice, and in so far as we have responsibility for staff, we will fulfil all that is expected of a good employer.
- Always be mindful of our responsibility to maintain and develop the ethos and reputation of our school. Our actions within the school and the local community will reflect this.
- In making or responding to criticism or complaints affecting the school, we will follow the procedures established by the governing body.
- Actively support and challenge the head teacher.
- Get to know the school well and respond to opportunities to involve ourselves in school activities.
- Visit the school, with all visits to school arranged in advance and undertaken within the framework established by the governing body and agreed with the head teacher.

All Governing Body members are required to act in accordance with the Nolan Principles for conduct in public life:

Selflessness

Governing Body Members should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other benefits for themselves, their family or their friends.

Integrity

Governing Body Members should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.

Objectivity

In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.

Accountability

Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.

Openness

Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.

Honesty

Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.

Management

Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by Management and example.

2. THE ROLE OF THE HEADTEACHER

The Headteacher, as the lead professional in the school, is responsible for its internal leadership, management and organisation, for advising the Governing Body members and for implementing the actions in the strategic plan.

The Headteacher will be supported in the day-to-day leadership and management of the school by the LG. A member of the LG will take the role of Lead Professional in each Governing Body committee. S/he attends as a support professional and is expected to engage fully with the meeting, albeit without voting rights.

Incorporated in the role of the Headteacher and Lead Professionals in advising the Governing Body are:

- Formulating and reviewing the vision, values, aims and objectives for the school, for modification and adoption by the Governing Body
- Formulating and reviewing policies for adoption by the Governing Body
- Reporting to the Governing Body on progress, either at full Governing Body meetings or at committee meetings, at least once per term
- Completing an annual evaluation of school effectiveness and associated School Development Plan, for ratification by the Governing Body

3. DELEGATION OF THE GOVERNING BODY'S FUNCTIONS

A decision about the delegation of Governing Body functions has been taken in the light of:

- The requirement for the Governing Body to fulfill a largely strategic function
- The responsibility of the Headteacher and LG for the internal leadership, management and organisation of the school
- The requirement for the Headteacher to comply with any legal and reasonable direction of the Governing Body in carrying out a function delegated by the Governing Body.

The Governing Body has delegated its functions to 2 types of committee, Standing and Routine, and to the Headteacher in accordance with the following structure and terms of reference:

4. THE GOVERNING BODY COMMITTEE STRUCTURE AND TERMS OF REFERENCE

The individual committees are responsible for the functions that have been delegated to them by the full Governing Body and operate under their own terms of reference.

The Governing Body must have a Chair and Vice Chair (or two Vice Chairs) who will be appointed by the Governing Body to serve a term of one year. Each Committee must have a Chair and Vice Chair who will be elected at the September meeting of the full Governing Body, to serve a term of one year.

All Governing Body Committee meetings must be clerked. Once agreed by the Chairman of the relevant committee as an “approved draft”, the minutes will be circulated to members of the Governing Body. The minutes will be published after the Governing Body meeting. The minutes will be discussed for acceptance at the next relevant Committee Meeting.

All minutes can be circulated except confidential matters relating to individual staff, pay or students, which will be printed on pink paper and will not be circulated outside of the committee.

In the event of a tied vote the Chair of Governing Body or Committee Chair respectively will have the casting vote.

5. ADDITIONAL COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The Governing Body may from time to time invite those with a specific interest or area of expertise to attend a particular meeting.

Consideration will also be given to inviting stakeholder representatives to become members of a Committee, providing that a majority of members are governors. The governors may determine that some or all of the members who are not governors may have voting rights.

Exclusions

The Headteacher is the only person with the power to exclude a pupil from the school. In his or her absence and/or in consultation with the Headteacher, the Deputy Headteacher has the right to exclude a pupil from school. A pupil may not be excluded for an indefinite period; exclusion must be for a fixed term or permanent.

1. The Headteacher must adhere to the following:
 - a. Where he/she excludes a pupil, the parent must be informed immediately and this must be followed by a letter (using the recommended format) within one school day of the exclusion.
 - b. In exceptional cases, usually where further evidence has come to light, a fixed period exclusion may be extended or converted to a permanent exclusion. In such cases the Headteacher must write again to the parents explaining the reasons for the change;
 - c. The Governing Body and the Local Authority must be informed, within one school day, of:
 - i. Exclusions which would result in the pupil being excluded for more than five school days (or more than ten lunchtimes in one term);
 - ii. Exclusions which would result in the pupil missing a public examination.

 - a. to consider whether the pupil should be reinstated immediately, reinstated by a particular day or not reinstated.
 - b. where they consider he/she should be reinstated, to give the appropriate direction to the Headteacher.
 - c. where they consider that he/she should not be reinstated to inform the parents of their decision.

3. On receiving notice of an exclusion from the Headteacher, the Governing Body:
 - a. must, in the case of one or more fixed period exclusions totalling five school days or less in any one term, consider any representations from the parent. If representations from the parent are received they should convene a meeting to consider the representations, although they cannot direct reinstatement.
 - b. must in the case of one or more fixed period exclusions totalling more than five but not more than fifteen school days in any one term, convene a meeting between the 6th and 50th school day after receiving the notice of exclusion, to consider the exclusion, if the parent requests a meeting.
 - c. must in the case of a permanent exclusion, or one or more fixed period exclusions (including lunchtimes) totalling more than fifteen school days in any one term, convene a meeting between the 6th and 15th school day after the date of receipt of notice to consider the exclusion.
 - d. must invite the parent, Headteacher and a Local Authority Officer to the meeting at a time (within the statutory time limit) and place convenient to all parties.
 - e. should ask for any written statements (including witness statements) in advance of the meeting.
 - f. where a short exclusion of up to five days causes a pupil to miss a public examination the Chair may consider reinstatement if the Disciplinary Committee is unable to meet before the examination date.

The Discipline Committee should normally allow the excluded pupil to attend the meeting and speak, at the parents' request. Parents should be allowed to be accompanied by a friend or representative if they wish.

4. It is the duty of the Headteacher where he/she has excluded a pupil to comply with any direction for the reinstatement of the pupil given by the Discipline Committee.
