

I hate that stuff

Broccoli, carrots, cabbage and peas

Harsh British weather attacking the trees

I hate that stuff.

Lessons, homework, everlasting days

Arguments, fallouts, and things that always change

I hate that stuff.

Poverty, crime, illness and death

The whole injustice of being blind or deaf

I hate that stuff.

Poaching of animals for their horns or skin

Innocent lives being tossed in the bin

I hate that stuff.

People being forced to leave their own country

Constant fear for some that there will be a World War 3

I hate that stuff.

Stereotypes; discrimination against gender and race

I mean, aren't we all part of the same human race?

I hate that stuff!

It all makes me so angry - okay, maybe not the vegetables, but why do people still deal with things no one should have to deal with?

Why do people still go through things no one should have to go through?

Well, whatever the reason, it's gone too far!

It needs to stop!

But me, I'm just some random little twelve-year-old living in this random little city that we call Lincoln, doing literally what every other random little twelve-year-old living in this random little city does!

A mouse can't stop an entire herd of purposeful elephants.

I can't stop the world from doing whatever the world wants to do.

Broccoli, carrots, cabbage and peas

They really are the worst of my worries

I hate that stuff.
