The Garton Archive

proudly presents

PLAYS FOR BUBBLES

Heritage Open Day 2020 is very different this year because of the pandemic. Distancing concerns make it difficult to host visitors to the Garton Archive in the usual way. However, the combination of the Lincolnshire theme of 'past and pastimes', modern technology and the widespread acceptance of the term 'bubble' for all sorts of social groupings creates a new possibility.

Two scripts written in the 1950's, one for the Girls High School, the other for Lincoln School, are now available for the first time through LCHS

Please download one or both

Involve family and friends

Read the scripts aloud together

Perhaps dress for the occasion and enjoy some seasonal cheer

Perhaps record and film your performance, and share it with a wider audience, maybe through LCHS. We would love to hear from you!

Most important of all, have fun!
